Looks like signature today, but unclear if a release is pending today and if the reports of the event in VA is still on for tomorrow.

We'd like to know when to post the signed package, and if possible to see the release before it goes out.

Sounds like we will get clearance and upload the final doc to OMB shortly (in next 30 min or so). After that we'll move things through for signature. John—please let your OPA folks know where we are in the process, as you see fit. thanks

I've heard nothing new on rollout. I think the Pohanka plan for tomorrow is still the latest.

Looping in Tia and John directly

I was told (by OP) that the Administrator is very interested in making sure this gets signed today

OMB will likely clear shortly and we'll upload from there

I haven't heard anything about roll-out details/messaging/etc. John do you have anything new?
